

Muhammad Nur Hidayat

Wiyung, Surabaya

+6282350062755/muhammadnurhidayat14045@gmail.com

Profile

I am a graduate of University of Muhammadiyah Malang, majoring in Informatics with a concentration in Software Engineering. During my academic years, I actively participated as a laboratory practical assistant. I also completed an internship as a web development assistant at a government institution and possess a good command of English. With a meticulous, adaptable, and responsible personality, and strong teamwork capabilities, I am confident in my ability to contribute positively and professionally to your organization.

Work Experience

Business Development – Repacking Snack, Toko Grosir Snacks Regina

December 2024 – May 2025

Managed operations and overall business activities in the store.

Web Development Assistant – DKISP (Department of Communication and Information, Tarakan City)

February – March 2022

- Assisted the team with the installation of web and mail servers.
- Maintained printers and operational computer equipment.
- Supported web development for local government departments.
- Helped the team in preventing and mitigating website defacement issues.

Informatics Laboratory Assistant – University of Muhammadiyah Malang

August 2022 – January 2023

- Responsible for assisting lab practical sessions in Informatics courses.
- Designed and compiled practical lab modules.
- Assisted and assessed student participants during lab sessions.

Education

University of Muhammadiyah Malang

August 2018 – June 2025

Bachelor of Computer Science | GPA: 3.78 / 4.00

SMAN 1 Tarakan

July 2014 – June 2017

Science Major

Skills

- Able to operate and maintain information technology equipment effectively
- Strong understanding of programming languages: C, HTML, PHP, and Java
- Proficient in Microsoft Office and CorelDraw
- Fast learner and highly adaptable
- Disciplined and responsible
- Strong problem-solving skills
- Detail-oriented
- Effective communication
- Good proficiency in English